Tippity Witchet, the Favorite, Finishes Last in Large Field

Classy Thoroughbreds Now "Trial Galloping" at Belmont Park and a Veteran Trainer

Slippery Elm Takes Second Honors and Lunetta Is Third in Seven-Furlong Dash; Knight of the Heather Beats Exodus in Twin Cities Purse

BOWIE, Md., April 1.—Bunga Buck, the four-year-old chestnut colt owned by Mrs. H. Dattner, scored an impressive victory in the Inaugural Handicap, which featured the opening of the Eastern racing season at Prince Georges Park this afternoon. More than seven thousand enthusiastic followers of the sport were on hand. Although recent rains made the track soft, the sky was clear and the day was warm.

Carrying an impost of 123 pounds, only one less than that imposed upon Tippity Witchet, the favorite, Bunga Buck assumed the lead going into the homestretch and won by a length and a half from Slippery Elm, which in turn was less than half a length ahead of Lunetta. Although favored by a good position, the favorite ran sluggishly throughout and finished absolutely last in a field of eight.

Jockey Chic Lang got Bunga Buck off to a nice start, and at the quarter-mile post was rating along in fourth place. Lunetta, B. Bang and Slippery Elm were racing in the order named. Lunetta tired at the half-way mark and it was here that Lang made his bid, moving Bunga Buck into the lead, with Slippery Elm in close attendance.

Turning into the homestretch, Lang kept out a few wraps and the Vulcanian Orr colt responded gamely, opening up an advantage of a full length, which was increased in the dash to the wire. Slippery Elm was pinched back somewhat rounding the turn, but it is doubtful if this would have had any bearing on the result, for Bunga Buck was well in hand at the finish.

The Twin Cities Purse resulted in an easy victory for Knight of the Heather, which was held in restraint during the early running of the six-furlong race, and closed with great speed. Exodus, from the Whitney stable, was second, two lengths back, and Mercury was a close third.

The opening race of the year was an upset. Forshale, a chestnut filly, leading home a field of two-year-old maidens. H. P. Whitney, who started the entire Brookville-Spin Glass filly, and the honor of knocking down the speedy favorite, Better Luck, from the Orleans Stable, which finished third, after suffering some interference. Carmen Pantano, another outsider, gathered in second money, being only a nose behind Forshale.

Etale, with Jockey Rubin up, had a romp in winning the second race, for three-year-olds at six and a half furlongs. The speedily favored and made the winner at a decided favorite and Rubin breezed his mount under the wire three lengths ahead of Lady Zeus, which in turn was a half length in front of Edna D. This pair proved a profitable investment, paying $20.80 and $26.50 respectively, and show for a $2 ticket.

The Whitney stable scored its second victory of the day in the third race when Brainstorm also ridden by Morris, captured the Promenade Purse by a wide margin. Elemental, almost an equal favorite with the winner, was second, and All Fair gathered in the consolation money.

Todd Soccer Team

Plays Tie Contest

With Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA, April 1.—Philadelphia made sure of at least a tie in the race for the American League soccer championship when the local eleven played a tie game with the Todd's team of Brooklyn at Cahill Field this afternoon. Each team accounted for a single goal.

The Phils have been leading the league all season and a victory today would have clinched the title and the Brooklyn stars played hard to keep the Philly aggregation from scoring.

New York is the runner-up to the Phils, and as they have but two games to play the best the metropolitan eleven can do is to tie the Phils, while a victory in either of the two games remaining for the league leaders or even a tie will give them the championship.
